From the Vicar...

“I love those who love me, and those who diligently seek me will find me.”- Proverbs 8:16

Dearly beloved in Christ,

Greetings to you in the name of our LORD and Saviour Jesus Christ!

As the year 2021 comes to an end, you may be going through some reflection as to what happened in the past 12 months. Some might say, ‘It was my best year’, while others may say, ‘it could have been better’, or, ‘It was a disaster!’. The list can go on. Of course, most of the year was overshadowed by COVID -19, but let’s continue to pray for God’s intervention, to control the spread of COVID -19. May this year bring you happiness, new goals, new achievements, and many new inspirations to your lives.

Proverbs is the book of wisdom and it’s given to us for instruction, insight, and knowledge. Let us begin this New Year by meditating the above verse.

Seeking God means seeking his presence. Like earthly fathers who care for their children, and would rather have them come ask for help than struggle on their own, our Heavenly Father yearns for us to seek His Hand. This is so important to Him that He designed creation in such a way that our blessings are completely contingent on us following this model.

“But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.” (Matthew 6:33)

Time and time again, the Bible makes it abundantly clear that, “In Christ Jesus, [we] are all children of God through faith!” (Galatians 3:26). I urge you all to make it your determined effort to walk in faith today, settling for nothing but God’s VERY best for your life!

I encourage all parishioners to memorize Lamentations 5:21, and let us also try and finish reading the Bible from Genesis to Revelation.

May joy, peace, and success follow you everywhere you go in whatever you do. Have a wonderful new year 2022.

Yours in His service

Rev. Aji John
