From the Vicar...

Dearly beloved in Christ,

Greetings to you in the everlasting name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

“And Esau was forty years old when he took to wife Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Bashemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite: <sup>35</sup>Which were a grief of mind unto Isaac and to Rebekah.” Genesis 26:34-35

At the beginning of each year, many of us make resolutions. Getting involved in these efforts can provide us with the motivation and direction to make positive changes in our lives.

Trampling underfoot the direction of his grandfather Abraham (Gen. 24:3), Esau married two “Canaanite” women who grieved the mind of Isaac and Rebekah. Esau was denying the values and mandates of his forefathers. As generations progress there is an inclination for challenging things we may not have been properly taught to respect and revere.

We could easily allow certain boundaries and traditions in our walk with God to fall to the wayside. As strict or loose as you live for God, your children, and grandchildren could, if not properly taught and trained, start to allow some timeless standards, traditions, and values to drop off feeling they're antiquated.

God commanded Israel to teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. (Deuteronomy. 6:7).

For every one time you teach your child, something is right or wrong, there's a wicked world out there telling them, "If it feels good, do it!" We need to be relentless in our love, teaching and training our children and even our grandchildren; essentially transforming them from a "grief of mind" to a "peace of mind."

Training means teaching and guiding. Training also means producing required changes in a person. Teaching our children, the commands of our Lord is the responsibility of parents. As parents, we are blessed by having options to help train our children. And may we always encourage our children to seek the Lord in all they do and to enjoy the blessing of living life for Him.

As we enter a new month today, may the Lord provide for our needs according to His riches in glory.

Yours in His service

Rev. Aji John
